Dear Edgar:

I received the enclosed from a very close friend of mine, Mr. James A. McConnell of Ithaca, who you might remember as a rather recent Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, and where he did a wonderful job and was popular with everyone who dealt with him. He is probably the leading grain man in this country. Also, for many years, he was the General Manager of the G.L.F., the largest bona fide farmer's cooperative in the United States and the one which first gave up its right to tax exemptions. He is extremely conservative.

I had not heard about this particular situation before and although you probably have I thought I would send it to you.

With all the best,

Sincerely,

Appointment to the New York Board of Education

On Monday, March 24, Mayor Robert F. Wagner appointed the Rev. Dr. Gardner Calvin Taylor to the New York City Board of Education. Dr. Taylor, a 39 year old Negro Baptist clergyman of Brooklyn, will take the oath of office at City Hall on Friday, March 28.

Dr. Taylor's appointment brings up the question of his extraordinary relations with the Communist apparatus, in conducting the funeral service of a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party in his Brooklyn church.

It is extraordinary, if not utterly fantastic, for the Communist Party to use a Christian church for the burial of one of its leaders, and even more extraordinary and fantastic for a minister of religion to deliver a eulogy of the deceased Communist Party leader on the occasion.

The deceased Communist Party leader was Edward E. Strong, a key figure in the Communist conspiracy for 25 years.

In his funeral sermon, Dr. Taylor was reported to have "paid homage" to Edward E. Strong "as one who dared to dream and work for the new world every good person desires." Surely that is a strange tribute to a Communist Party leader by a Christian clergyman.

Paul Robeson sang at the funeral service for Edward E. Strong, and the following Communist Party leaders were pall bearers: James W. Ford, Benjamin J. Davins, Claude Lightfoot, Louis Burnham, and William L. Patterson.

Using a Christian church for the burial rites of one of its leaders reflects the new line of the Communist Party, the chief aspect of which is to get its conspiratorial apparatus back into the main stream of American life--to end, at whatever necessary compromise of its atheistic principle, its isolation of recent years.

The National Committee of the Communist Party, USA, issued an official statement on the death of Edward E. Strong which read, in part, as follows: "Returning from his service in World War II, Ed Strong became a leader of the Communist Party. As a member of its national committee, as Chairman of the Eastern Pennsylvania District, as Southern Regional Secretary, he enriched the Party with the high quality of leadership which had won the admiration and respect of scores of thousands in the youth movement--above all, he was a man of sterling personal character. He was a fitting prototype of the new Communist man. That was the official eulogy of the Communist Party, U.S.A.

Early this year, the Rev. Dr. Gardner Calvin Taylor was elected president of the Protestant Council of the City of New York. His elevation to the highest position in Protestantism in Greater New York was hailed by the city's press. He has jurisdiction over 1,700 churches of 31 denominations.

Mr. Taylor is vice president of the Urban League of Greater New York. He was a member of the Assembly of the National Council of the Churches of Christ at the organization's St. Louis meeting in December.

Edward E. Strong's burial services in the Concord Baptist Church of Brooklyn took place in April, 1957.

M.G. LOWMAN,

my 10-1
Gardner Calvin Taylor

Mr. LOWMAN, who is known to Mr. Nease at the Bureau, telephonically offered to SAC the following observations:

1) There will be a large Baptist Convention in Cincinnati shortly. A featured speaker will be GARDNER TAYLOR, President of the Greater New York City Ministerial Association. TAYLOR is a noted colored minister. In April, 1957, he preached a sermon at the Concord Baptist Church in connection with the funeral of EDWARD STRONG, Communist, and Mr. LOWMAN intends to see that this is publicized in connection with the convention of Baptists in Cincinnati. He observes that it is strange that a member of the National Committee of Communists should be a member of the Protestant Church and that other high officials on the Communist Committee should attend the STRONG funeral in a church.

2) The U. S. National Student Association will hold its 10th Annual meeting in August at Ohio Wesleyan University. LOWMAN stated that in the past this group has passed resolutions on an extremely wide range of anti-U. S. topics and from his reading of these resolutions they are completely beyond undergraduate abilities and, therefore, there must be some adult guidance in inspiring and preparing such broad and controversial resolutions. LOWMAN intends to keep in touch with developments of this group.

3) Dr. ARTHUR FLEMING, new secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, is an individual not worthy of trust according to LOWMAN. LOWMAN bases this personal evaluation on his belief that the Civil Service was manipulated on occasions in favor of Communism during the period when FLEMING served with the Civil Service Commission.

It is his belief that there were a number of occasions wherein field investigators of Civil Service reported findings of Communist activity on the part of proposed Government employees but that such persons were hired anyhow when Civil Service Commission overruled field findings.

Background

The House Committee on Un-American Activities has advised that Reverend Gardner Taylor, 170 Adelphi Street, Brooklyn, New York, was a Representative to the General Assembly (GA). (The GA was not further identified.)

Subversive Data

A report by FOIA(b) (7) - (D) dated February 4, 1942, at New Orleans captioned "Negro Reverends Who Are Liberals and Being Used by the CP" contained the name of Gardner Taylor. (100-3-47-47)

It is not known whether this Gardner Taylor is identical with the captioned individual.

The "New Orleans Sentinel," a newspaper, on October 24, 1942, carried an article which indicated that Reverend Gardner C. Taylor would be a speaker at a meeting of the Peoples Defense League (PDL) on October 25, 1942, at New Orleans. (100-232896-1, page 4)

Gladys Devore Williams, a former Communist Party (CP) member, advised on May 22, 1959, that the PDL is a Negro organization in New Orleans interested in local politics and not controlled or infiltrated by the CP now; however, during 1940-1948 it was infiltrated. (100-232896-1, page 4)

The "Times Picayune" issue of October 29, 1946, contained an article which reported that Dr. Gardner C. Taylor, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, was elected to an office (not further identified) at the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) convention held in October, 1946, in Baton Rouge. (100-10355-235, page 5)

The leaflet indicated that a program under the auspices of the New Orleans Youth Conference (NOYC) would be held on September 4, 1947, at 929 Gravier Street, and that Reverend Gardner C. Taylor, pastor, Mount Zion Baptist Church, Baton Rouge, would be a speaker.

ADMINISTRATIVE:

Subject's residence and employment, as they appear in the report, were ascertained by SA WILLIAM R. CLOUGH, via a pretext telephone call to an unknown female at subject's place of residence. A fictitious newspaper reporter seeking to contact the subject for purposes of soliciting his comments on the current New York City School Teachers Strike was the pretext utilized.

The following record checks were made with no record for subject being found, and/or no pertinent information to report concerning the subject:

Credit Bureau of Greater New York - records checked by PAULINE DE FIORE for IC JOHN F. GOOD on 3/14/62.

Bureau of Criminal Identification, NYCPD, on 3/30/62.

On 3/6/53, FOIA b 7 - D made available a pamphlet captioned, "Conference on Racial Bigotry and the New York Press". This pamphlet identified subject as one of the prominent initiating sponsors of a group calling for an end to newspaper reportage which "contains explosive sparks of racist provocation".

On 2/16/61, Mrs. JESSIE C. TRIMMER, School Teacher, Prospect Heights High School, Brooklyn, New York, furnished to the NYO a mimeographed notice of an award and scroll presentation to take place at Prospect Heights High School, Brotherhood Assembly, on Tuesday, 2/21/61. The notice announced that an award would be made to one Mrs. JAMES GABRIELLE who "in the face of mob action" sent her daughter to a newly desegregated school in New Orleans until such violence occurred as to cause the GABRIELLE family to have their daughter withdrawn from that school. Listed as a guest at this presentation was the subject, described as a member of the Board of Education.

"The New York Amsterdam News" issued of 4/9/60, contained an advertisement by the "Committee to Defend Martin Luther King, and the Struggle for Freedom in the South, 312 West 125th Street, New York 27, New York". Listed as a co-chairman of this committee was "Dr. Gardner C. Taylor".

On 2/20/61, FOIA b 7 - D furnished a program of events, speakers, and national sponsoring committee of the Negro American Labor Council Workshop and Institutes on Race Bias in Trade Unions, Industry, and Government, Washington, D. C. Listed as being on the "sponsoring committee" was Reverend GARDNER TAYLOR.

It is noted there is no characterization for the organizations "Committee to Defend Martin Luther King in the Struggle for Freedom in the South, nor Negro American Labor Council".

"The Worker" issue of March 8, 1959, page 1, column 1, contained an article noting that Dr. GARDNER C. TAYLOR, "only Negro member of the New York City Board of Education", had called upon students, teachers, and the principals to support the April 18, "March" and petition campaign for school integration.

Subject was observed by SA WILLIAM R. CLOUGH on the evening of 5/21/61, when he appeared as a guest panelist on the weekly TV program, "Open End", Channel 5, New York, produced by Talent Associates, 444 Madison Avenue, Manhattan, New York, and moderated by the well-known producer DAVID SUSSKIND.

The topic for discussion on this informal program was, "The Negro and his Rights". It was the agents recollection that subject's remarks, as a whole, were to champion Negro rights, spoke out in favor of "Core" and the work of the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, and opposed segregation in any form.

Subject ~~his~~ not being included in the Security or Reserve Indexes.

It is noted that subject is prominently known in the New York area as a result of his work in the Negro, Educational, and Religious fields. As such, he has access to news media, and is widely quoted in newspapers, as well as having made the previously mentioned appearance on television.

In view of this fact, together with an evaluation of his known activity, the NYO does not believe an interview of subject is warranted or appears justified at this time, but could lead to embarrassment to this Bureau.

This report is being submitted primarily for indexing purposes, and to apprise the Bureau of CP's interest in subject as a possible candidate to Congress.

This report is stamped "Confidential" inasmuch as it contains information furnished by NY T-1, and NY T-2, sources of continuing value, which information, if made available to unauthorized persons, might compromise these sources, to the detriment of the National Defense.

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INC.

The records of the Secretary of State, New York State Department of State, Albany, New York, reflect that the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Inc., was filed on March 2, 1961.

The first issue of "Freedomways," spring, 1961, is self-described as a quarterly review of the Negro freedom movement published by Freedomways Associates, Inc., 799 Broadway, New York City.

On May 25, 1961, a confidential source advised that "Freedomways" was set up by JAMES JACKSON, a member of the National Committee, CPUSA, for the CP of the United States with the approval of the CP of the Soviet Union.

On May 24, 1961, another confidential source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

Synopsis: Subject reportedly conducted funeral services for EDWARD E. STRONG, CP Functionary, in the Concord Baptist Church of Brooklyn, in April, 1957. Reverend GARDNER C. TAYLOR was scheduled to speak at a meeting of the PDL in October, 1942, at New Orleans; was elected to an office at the SCHW Convention held in October, 1946 at Baton Rouge; and was listed as sponsor of a 2 day conference of the ECLC, held in January, 1953. Subject, in March, 1958, began a seven year term as a member of the NYC Board of Education, but, with other members of the board, resigned in August, 1961, at the request of the Mayor of NYC. Subject reportedly was encouraged by the CP to run for political office in forthcoming elections; but officials of his church instructed him not to undertake any political activity, and subject has therefore decided not to become a candidate.

DETAILS:

I. AFFILIATION WITH THE COMMUNIST MOVEMENT

A. Communist Party (CP) Sympathies

On April 2, 1958, VICTOR EMANUEL, 420 Lexington Avenue, New York 17, New York, furnished information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), that Reverend GARDNER CALVIN TAYLOR, Pastor of the Concord Baptist Church of Brooklyn, in April, 1957, conducted the funeral services in that church for EDWARD E. STRONG, a CP Functionary.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

NY 100-147908

According to Mr. EMANUEL, Reverend TAYLOR, in his funeral sermon, was reported to have "paid homage" to STRONG, "as one who dared to dream and work for the new world every good person desires."

Mr. M. G. LOWMAN, Circuit Riders, Cincinnati, Ohio, on June 6, 1958, furnished information to the FBI verifying the aforementioned information concerning the subject's officiating at the funeral services for STRONG at the Concord Baptist Church in Brooklyn, in April, 1957.

It is noted that EDWARD E. STRONG, was indicted on May 29, 1956, by a Federal Grand Jury, District of Massachusetts, Boston, for violation of the Smith Act of 1940, and was released on $10,000.00 bond awaiting trial.

NY T-1 related, on July 6, 1956, he learned from PHIL BART, that, as of two months ago, EDWARD E. STRONG was Secretary in Charge of the CP Organizational activity in the South.

NY T-2 stated, on March 15, 1956, that PHIL BART was a member of the CP National Organizing Commission.

B. CP Front Groups

1. People's Defense League (PDL)

A characterization of the PDL appears in the appendix section of this report.

The "New Orleans Sentinel", a New Orleans newspaper, on October 24, 1942, carried an article which revealed that a Reverend GARDNER C. TAYLOR would be a speaker at a meeting of the PDL, on October 25, 1942, at New Orleans, Louisiana.

NY 100-147908

2. Southern Conference for Human
Welfare (SCHW)

A characterization of the SCHW appears in the appendix section of this report.

The "Times-Picayune", issue of October 29, 1946, contained an article which reported that a Dr. GARDNER C.
TAYLOR, from Baton Rouge, Louisiana, was elected to an office (not further identified) at the SCHW Convention held in October, 1946, in Baton Rouge.

3. Emergency Civil Liberties
Committee (ECLC)

A characterization of the ECLC appears in the appendix section of this report.

An article on page 2, of the January 20, 1953 issue of "The Daily Worker", reported on a two day conference of the ECLC, which was to be held on January 30 and 31, 1953. This article revealed that a Reverend GARDNER C.
TAYLOR, Concord Baptist Church, Brooklyn, New York, was listed as a sponsor of the conference.

"The Daily Worker" was an east coast
Communist daily newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

II. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Prior Membership on the New York City
Board of Education

On May 29, 1962, a Special Agent of the FBI, via a pretext, ascertained that the subject was appointed to a seven year term as a member of the New York City Board of Education, which term was to commence on March 28, 1958.
The subject, however, as did the other members of the board, resigned his membership on the New York City Board of Education in August, 1961, at the request of Mayor ROBERT E. WAGNER, New York City, following a reported loss of public confidence in the board due to certain "scandals" in connection with school construction, repair and maintenance.

NY 100-147908

It was further determined, ~~that~~, via this pretext, that subject, since August, 1961, has had no affiliation or connection whatever with the New York City Board of Education.

B. Reported Candidacy for United States Congress

NY T-3, on May 28, 1962, furnished information that at a meeting of the leadership of Region 1, of the Kings County CP (KCCP), held on February 5, 1962, at 84 Putnam Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, it was mentioned that the subject plans to run for the office of United States Congressman from Brooklyn, New York, in the November, 1962 elections.

NY T-3 stated that no mention was made of the specific District or Political Party the subject would represent, but it was the opinion of NY T-3 that it would be the Bedford-Stuyvesant area, and one of the two major political parties, respectively.

On May 23, 1962, IC WAYNE E. RIVENBURG caused a check to be made of the records of the Brooklyn Board of Elections. These records reflect that GARDNER CALVIN TAYLOR, as of September 30, 1957, a resident of 833 Marcy Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, born June 18, 1918, in the United States, had registered to vote for one of the two major political parties from 1957 through 1961, inclusive. TAYLOR revealed that he had voted in 1956 from 170 Halsey Street, Brooklyn, New York.

It is noted that 833 Marcy Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, is the address of the Concord Baptist Church of Christ, Brooklyn, New York, of which the subject is pastor.

On May 23, 1962, IC RIVENBURG contacted Commissioner of Elections, JAMES POWERS, and Chief Clerk, Brooklyn Board of Elections, EDWARD BAKER. These individuals advised that they recognized the subject's name from the prominence and publicity he has acquired in New York. Neither individual, however, had any knowledge concerning the subject's alleged candidacy for public office. Commissioner POWERS noted that if the subject intends to run for Congress, he would enter the New York Primary Elections in September, 1962. POWERS added that the subject is presently a member of a triumvirate leadership of one of the two major political parties in Brooklyn, New York.

NY 100-147908

NY T-4, on May 31, 1962, related that the subject has been encouraged by the CP to run for political office; but that officials of his church have instructed the subject not to undertake any political activity on his own behalf, and that the subject, therefore decided he will not run for any political office this year.

APPENDIX

EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

- "1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * * The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'FRANK WILKINSON was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 WILKINSON was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. * * * WILKINSON has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.'

APPENDIX

EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE (CONT'D)

'Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECLC also have been identified under oath as Communists.

* * *

(Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1958, House Report 187, March 9, 1959, pp. 34 and 35.)

"2. 'To defend the cases of Communist law-breakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection.'

GLADYS DEVORE WILLIAMS, a former Communist Party member, advised on May 22, 1959, that the People's Defense League is a Negro organization in New Orleans interested in local politics, and not controlled or infiltrated by the Communist Party now; however, during 1940 - 1948, it was infiltrated.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE FOR HUMAN WELFARE (SCHW)

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published as of January 2, 1957, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, reflects the following citation concerning the "Southern Conference for Human Welfare":

1. Cited as a Communist front which received money from the Robert Marshall Foundation, one of the principal sources of funds by which many Communist fronts operate.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House report 1311, on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 147).
2. Cited as a Communist-front organization "which seeks to attract southern liberals on the basis of its seeming interest in the problems of the South" although its "professed interest in southern welfare is simply an expedient for larger aims serving the Soviet Union and its subservient Communist Party in the United States".
(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, on the Southern Conference for Human Welfare, June 16, 1947.)
